

WORLD RECORD ATTEMPT

Largest gathering of Mohawk / Mohican Hair Styles

Where: AAAF Wellbeing Expo
Kingston City Hall
Melbourne

When: Sunday 10th October 2010
Registration from 1.00pm
On stage at 3.30pm

Conditions of Record Attempt:

- ◆ Hair must be minimum of 3cm in length
- ◆ All participants must be registered and photographed prior to record attempt
- ◆ All participants must be on stage together at one time
- ◆ If attempt is achieved AAAF will be registered with the Guinness World Records™

The Mohawk (known as a "Mohican" in British/Commonwealth English) is a hairstyle. In the most common variety, both sides of the head are shaved leaving a strip of noticeably longer hair in the centre. Mohawks became common in punk subculture in the early 1980s and were then adopted by Rivetheads with various other groups, becoming more diverse in style. Today, Mohawks have become part of mainstream fashion.

www.aaaf.org.au

